By Evelyn B. Bourne
I found author, Tama Kieves, through her A Course in Miracles work. When I read her second book, Inspired Unstoppable, it was at the perfect time in my life and career. Soon after finishing the book I was privileged to attend one of her live workshops at the Open Center in Manhattan, which was an amazing experience. Ms. Kieves is such a genuine person, and her passion for people and the work comes across so clearly in her writing. This is not a conventional career guide book, and it's not for everyone. It is written for those who are looking to uncover the spiritual underpinnings of their life and follow their life's calling in their work.

By S. Lester
Read "This Time I Dance" first and then this. In "Inspired..." Tama retells bits and pieces of her story throughout, which you already learned in "This Time I Dance", but I still recommend reading both books. I almost don't have words for this book, My first reaction was, "OK Tama, you can stop writing now. You have said everything anyone could ever say about the subject of how to find and live you life's work and pointed our every possible tether one could have to flying their life's mission." But she is such an amazing writer I do wonder what she'll do next....maybe go to the beach. I'm sure she'll tell us what's next, but what she makes clear is what's next for us is what is important to her. She carries on with her work with lectures and counseling, to inspire us to be all we want to be in our heart of hearts. It might be strange to say, but I hope Tama does not write another book on this subject, because this one is the total package, and another one would have to be a disappointment.

"You are meant to succeed in the work you love. Your desire will take you all the way." — Tama J. Kieves

What if everything you thought you needed to do to succeed was actually standing in the way of your success?

Tama Kieves, Harvard-lawyer-turned-career-coach, has spent the last decade crossing the United States and Canada, speaking to tens of thousands of people and sharing her inspiring story of moving from a career that was killing her to a life that has uplifted her, chronicled in her first book, This Time I Dance!: Creating the Work You Love. She has mentored thousands of people who, with her help, have followed their passion, and now live their dream lives. And now she takes us to the next step in our journey.

Within you is your purpose; your destiny; that will lead you to your greatest fulfillment, and your greatest success. What Kieves discovered in her own journey is that the way to success is an inspired path, not a linear one. She brings her mentoring ideas and actions together in her latest work, Inspired and Unstoppable. In this motivating book, Kieves teaches that it is only in unleashing this purpose that you can become truly happy and satisfied. Through these teachings, she will help you move into your "brilliant power". She shares the mental and emotional impact of this journey; the fears, doubts, and boogeymen that arise; and how to become an unstoppable warrior for your life's work and desires. This book will help you stay connected to your desires and shift your innermost thinking. When you do, inspired actions will seem to fall directly out of the sky, and onto your plate. You will naturally outpace anything any expert could ever tell you. You don't need the steps, when you have the moves.

Beautifully written, Inspired Unstoppable also includes success stories from Tama's life and the lives of others who have made their dreams their reality, as well as practices that will create positive momentum, and "Inspired Success" — delightful, quick bites of wisdom peppered throughout the book. It also includes guidelines on how to create your own "Inspired Success Circle" — a way of moving forward with the support of friends and loved ones. Practical, empowering, inspirational, galvanizing — Inspired Unstoppable is the touchstone to (finally) living your wildest dreams and greatest desires.
